

Cookridge Holy Trinity

Role and Expectations of House Captains

Job Description

The role of House Captain is one of pride and responsibility. It is more than just a title and badge; it requires dedication and commitment for a whole year.

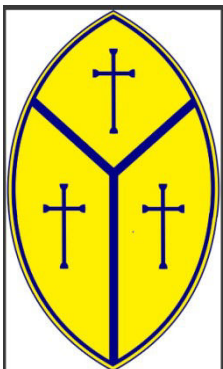

Characteristics of House Captains

- Polite and well-mannered
- Organised and committed
- Responsible role model

Expectations

- To be enthusiastic and committed to the role of House Captain
- To be friendly and positive with all children, particularly in your House.
- To be a positive role model for the school

Responsibilities of House Captains

Job Purpose

To lead children in your House, ensuring participation from all.

Specific Responsibilities

To work with other House Captains to help organise House Events and promote them during assemblies.

To encourage children to join in and fully support their House.

To attend House Captain meetings.

To update House point totals each week on the TEAM board.

Signed

Date 8.9.2017