

Awesome Attractions

AWESOME ATTRactions

No matter who you are or what you like there will be something for you to do in new York.

From crowd pleasing central park, to the fantastic Statue of Liberty.

Book in advance to go up the world famous Statue of Liberty but you will have to be fit to go up the 377 steps. See the torch plated with 24 carat gold leaf on the torch.

Look out of the crown and see over the whole of new York [you will not regret it. Go to the empire state building and go up the lift to get to

Visit New York

City

If you are looking for the trip of your life, if you want to shop 'til you drop ,if you want to find somewhere to go in the

Shopping

There are hundreds of stores in New York such as the M&M store Bloomingdales and Macys. Get 11% off in Macys if you are not an American resident. Shop till you drop and don't hesitate getting a new outfit.

Sports

Come to a baseball game at the Yankee stadium and visit a special American football game which is only on when you are there. See a basketball game and see how it is really played.

Food

There is a massive range of foods candy and salads in New York. Treat yourself to a real American burger followed by a freshly made cheese cake from the cheesecake factory. Eat American candy such as zotz M&Ms and laffy taffy .

Nightlife

New York is nicknamed the city that never sleeps because basically it is always lit up and there are always people EVERYWHERE. Come to Times Square and see all the crazy things they do there. Once they even made a huge

Transport

Take a world famous yellow taxi and stick your hand out like the movies. Subways can take you anywhere in the state with their

Climate

