

NEW YORK CITY

If you want an adventure of a lifetime, if you want to explore the city that never sleeps, then New York is the place for you. If you come to New York you will feel like you're in heaven.

Attractions

There is lots of things to do at New York if you want to relax there is a park called Central Park you can go there every day you can get a coffee and sit on a bench and relax or you can feed the ducks or you can go roller skating there is something to do for everyone.

If you don't like going to the park then you can go to a place called Coney Island this place is the most amazing amusement park ever, there is so many rides. If you don't like big rides and you're a child you can go on some small rides. If you come to New York you will not get bored.

So I guess you're already thinking about coming to New York but I've got some more information to fill your head that will get you booking your holiday to New York. Another attraction is Times Square which is so busy it looks absolutely gorgeous on a night with all the lights if you like shimmering lights on a night then book your holiday to New York now.

Shopping

Do you like shopping? New York is the place for you. There is lots of shops the most popular ones are Macy's and Bloomingdale's. If you go to Macy's you get 10% off any clothes you buy. So if you like shopping for hours New York is the place for you.

Transport

Hop on board to a speedy subway. You can go almost everywhere, so try it now. Or hail a taxi (just like in the movies). The lifts in New York are the fastest in the world when you go up it takes about 10secs so if you like speedy subways and yellow cabs like the movies New York is the place for you.

Food

New York has billions of shops, fast food places and restaurants. If you want to have a relaxing evening with your wife or girlfriend you need to come to New York. There is lots of different foods like sushi and if you like fast food go grab a burger or a hotdog and act like a true American. If you come to New York you will feel like you're in heaven.

Sport

If you like basketball New York is the place for you there is lots of games you can go to. Do you like having fun with your friends? Why don't you get a hot dog and a soda and watch the game. Did you know that one of the teams is called the Knicks.

You don't want to miss out!

So book your holiday to New York

