

VISIT NEW YORK

If you want a trip of a life time, if you want to go on amazingly high buildings, if you want to taste amazing new foods, then go to New York .From the amazing foods to really posh 5 star hotels ,New York City is a place to suit everyone in your family

ASTONISHING ATTRACTIONS

If you are not afraid of heights then you must go to the tallest building in North America.

The Empire State Building. How long does it take you to get to the 7th floor of a hotel? Well think about it the Empire State Building takes you about 19 seconds to get to the very top! If you ever go up there the view from up there is astonishing(You will be shocked) it has 102 floors.

If you like to see amazing sky lines then visit the Statue of Liberty. You have to climb 354 stairs to get to the top of the crown but it is worth it. If you don't want to climb all of those stairs I can understand so why not get a helicopter ride. You can see a lot of the city from up there.

Do you like rides? Then Cony Island is a definite must go for you. Cony Island has loads of rides ,rollercoasters ,games and stalls. If you have had enough of rides you can always go and sit down on the beach and look out onto the glimmering river.

FABULOUS FOOD

Do you like food? then come to New York City where you can try loads of different foods. From Indians to Chinese There are hot dog and burger stands if you get hungry on a walk.

TERRIFIC TRANSPORT

Drive around in one of our famous yellow taxis like you are in the movies. If you want to get around quicker there are subways. If you were to get in a taxi the driver will often give you some tips about the city as they are local. If you like walking there is plenty of walking to do on your own two feet.

SUPER SPORT

Do you like sport? Then go to the Yankee Stadium to watch a football match. You can get a hotdog before the match like a true American. You can go and get some props also. America is famous for basketball.

SPECTACULAR SHOPPING

Do you like shopping? Then go to 5th Avenue where you would think there would be 1 shop but no there is about 20 on one street. You have to visit Bloomingdales. Are you wanting brand new clothes or shoes? Then come shopping in New York.

Does New York sound like a place for you? If it does then what are you waiting for come and join us here.
