L.O. To retell the Easter Story

Our final day of retelling the Easter story.

We talk all the time about how important it is to read your work aloud so that's your task today!

We'd like you to tell your story to someone maybe you could ring a grandparent or one of your school friends and you can read them to each other. If you can't do that then I'm sure someone at home would love to hear it too.

Remember to read it to yourself first though!
