

LO: To write different types of sentences

SPAG

Pg 36 and 37 Capital letters and full stops

For our super sentences stimulus we are going to watch the opening scene of “Roman Mysteries- Thieves of Ostia” (until 1:25)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=OOBazkwZQxA&t=216s>

3 -ed sentences

- Frightened, exhausted, confused, they raced from the robber.
- Terrified, alarmed, startled, they hurtled through the dark, sinister woodland.
- Confused, troubled, worried, she hid behind a towering stone wall.

These sentences are very good for showing us the emotional state of a character.

Ad, same ad

sentences

- He was a reckless runner, reckless because he needed to be.
- He was a smart dresser, smart because he had the money to buy the best.

This is a great way to emphasise the adjective in a sentence without it sounding boring.

Let's share and explode your sentences!

How can we improve them and make them even better?

