'The Best for Every Child -a Unique Child of God'
ISSUE No 456

24th April 2020

Dear Parent / Carers

We hope that you have been able to find the timetable and work that teachers have set on the school website this week. This is the model that we will continue with in future weeks. If you (or your child) experiences any difficulties or if there is a question about the work that has been set please get in touch to info@holytrinity.leeds.sch.uk - in the subject bar put your child's teacher's name and it will be forwarded onto them.

If you have trouble printing anything, try to use the slides/worksheets as a starting point and write answers in an exercise book (or adapt the task slightly).

BBC bitesize daily lessons are also an alternative if you need them and are linked on each class page.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize>

Our Christian Ethos this term is Compassion.

Our Ethos Statement this week is:

The Lord is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger in rich in love. The Lord is good to all; he has compassion on all he has made. Psalm 145: 8-9

Maths News

The next set of results are in...

Each week the Mathletics trophy is awarded to the class with the best participation in Mathletics, and we will announce our top ten school mathletes - the individual pupils with the most participation points.

There seems to be a bit of a Year 6 takeover on the leader board this week 😊

Our top ten mathletes for w/c 20th April 2020 are:

1. Bella Wiggan (6M)
2. Kieran Dean (4H)
3. Ben Power (6M)
4. Amelia Furlong (RR)
5. Elliott Blacker (3W)
6. Aaron Butler (6M)
7. Thomas Popplewell (6M)
8. Noah O'Hara (6M)
9. Isabella Ford (RR)
10. Hannah Thornley (6C)

This week the key stage trophies have been awarded to: KS1 – RR (for the second week in a row) and KS2 – 6M.

The Best for Every Child- a Unique Child of God

Pupil of the week – although we are not able to be at school we would still like to recognise the efforts and skills of our pupils. Teachers may choose someone they know has submitted a super piece of work, left an enthusiastic comment, been trying hard on Mathletics or TT Rockstars, or been being a wonderful Holy Trinity example in the home environment by being kind and caring to their family.

RR Beth Sample for showing fantastic enthusiasm towards her learning at home. She has really embraced our special story – even making puppets and putting on a show. Beth has also been spending lots of time on Mathletics, earning lots of points. Well done Beth, keep up all the hard work 😊	RW Lucy Holloway for her work on the little red hen and continuing to work hard at home. Keep it up Lucy 😊
1RB Eleanor Porter has been doing some really good reading over the last couple of weeks and I've been very impressed with her challenging book choices! I also really loved the pictures of her artwork that she sent into school. It is lovely to hear about the enthusiasm she has for her learning. Well done! ☐	1A Marnie Binns has sent in some photos of the work she has been doing whilst learning at home and I have been really impressed by her efforts. As well as writing her diary entries she has even found time to type them up. Keep it up, Marnie. 😊
2J Molly White for showing a good attitude to her home learning. She has done some fantastic baking at home, writing out the recipe and the ingredients all by herself and even managing to weigh the ingredients on her own! Molly has also been learning about the human body and has been doing some super maths work. Keep up the good work Molly while mummy and daddy are also busy working at home ☐.	2S Ewan Horner for some amazing effort over the last few weeks. It's been lovely seeing what you've been getting up to. I'm very impressed by your chick house and chocolate factory complete with chocolate river! Well done and keep up the hard work.
3W Well done for all of 3W for another super week of work. I've loved seeing all of the pictures you've been sending, keep them coming. Our pupil of the week is Elliot Kee who has been working very hard at home and has produced a very impressive Minecraft version on the Parthenon. Well done Elliot!	3R Theo Njie for impressing me with his fantastic Greek vase design! Theo has been working extremely hard at home and should be really proud of all of his work. Keep it up Theo ☐
4H My pupil of the week this week is Kieran Dean who has been keeping very busy doing lots of descriptive writing, practicing his times tables and developing his computing skills by making information PowerPoints about the Titanic. Well done! ☐	4L My pupil of the week is Dylan C for having a great attitude towards his home learning. I have heard he has been keeping busy with lots of fab activities, including his ancient Egyptians learning log! Keep up the hard work Dylan!
5E Ciaran Lowry for showing his commitment to his home learning by completing a well-written and edited diary entry complete with expanded noun phrases and in present perfect tense, as learnt on Monday and Tuesday.	5O Joshua Baxter for always being very quick to respond with his work and for doing some excellent spelling sentences.
6M Aaron Butler for his incredible work over the time we have been off. I received an email with pictures of all the tasks completed with incredible enthusiasm and done to an extremely high standard- keep it up Aaron :)	6C Ben Linyard for working hard with his home learning tasks. He has been getting creative when building a mountain model and drawing a 'giant mountaineer', while also impressing his family with his knowledge of mountaineering. When doing his maths, he has also shown impressive perseverance when working on some problems that he has found hard. Keep up the great work and attitude in these unusual times.

Pupdate

Poppy Hellings was in school this week – she had such a busy day: Listening to children teaching her their phonics and reading their work to her.

She went onto the playground at lunchtime to see how well our children played together. She saw some children passing the school gates she said hello to them and then did a little bit of paper work in my office (she does have a bed she can sleep on!).

What a tiring day!

RE: Supporting Parents and Carers during Self-Isolation and School Closures

We understand that this is a challenging and worrying time not only for our students, but for many of our parents and carers. We have therefore, put together this list of local and national agencies or charities that will offer advice, signpost or support you first hand. We hope you find it useful. All schools in the ESNW cluster of schools are working together to ensure we can support all our families.

Below are a range of different support that all our families can access;

ESNW Cluster

The Cluster supports families with children who are aged 0-19 in the Leeds area. Their aim is to give children who are enrolled at schools in Leeds the support needed to become successful and reach their potential. Some of the services their core team provide are family support, parenting courses, and therapeutic support for young people, children and adults. They can be found at;
