'The Best for Every Child -a Unique Child of God'
ISSUE No 463

19th June, 2020

Dear Parent / Carers
Our Christian Value this term is Truthfulness.

Our Ethos Statement this week is:

These are the things that you shall do: Speak the truth to one another; render in your gates judgments that are true and make for peace; Zechariah 8:16

A new way of working week 3

A further review of our COVID-19 Risk Assessment has enabled us to add further bubbles to our Holy Trinity Bubble System in school. This week we were pleased to include our Reception children into this unusual way of working. There was a mixture of excitement and nervousness on the gate this week as our youngest children lined up to start back at school. They said goodbye to their parent (if they remembered) and stepped into school and back to a little bit of normality (in a slightly different way).

Poppy Hellings popped into the bubbles to welcome the children back.

Our Key Worker Bubbles have grown and we now have no spare classrooms in school. Mrs Casling has timetabled the out-door space to within an inch of it's life to ensure that there are regular opportunities for the children to get outside.

Our teachers are busily writing school reports and they are due to be sent on 4th July. The end of year reports will look a little different to our usual format of reports. You will get to know how your child is performing against national standards of Working towards the Expected Standard, Working at the Expected Standard or Working at Greater Depth. You and your child will also find out who their teacher will be for next academic year. We are investigating how you will receive your child's report –at the moment it looks like it will come either through parent mail or SiMs – please make sure that you are signed up to both of those systems.

I know that September seems like a long time ahead but we are already starting to think what school will look like – hopefully we can start to get back to some form of normality. We will, as always, act upon Government instructions and Health and Safety advice to ensure the safest and quickest return for our children. As soon as we know what is happening we will let you know our plans – please bear with us. We generally hear about Government Policy the same time as everyone else – at a Downing Street briefing!

As the school term progresses our teachers will be starting to post some transition work for your child to work on. There will be other projects too that are in the pipeline for our children to get their teeth into. I will let you know what that will look like in next week's newsletter.

These are indeed challenging days so please continue to bear with us during this time.

Contact with school

We are continuing to limit the number of people who access school so that we can protect both children and staff. If you need to come into school to drop off something or pick something up please call the school office first.

App News

The app Zoom for video communication has an age restriction of 16. If you do use it with your children please ensure that your security settings are tight and your meetings are password secure. There have been incidents of unknown people accessing meetings without authorisation.

Pupil of the week

RR My pupil of the week is Milo Webber. Milo has settled really well into school this week and is really enjoying our special story 'The Snail and the Whale'. He has written a wonderful newspaper report about the snail saving the whale. He used lots of vocabulary from the story and used his phonics to spell independently. Well done, Milo!	RW Our Pupil of the Week is Scarlett Pickard for writing a newspaper report independently using lots of tricky words! Scarlett has also been a wonderful, caring friend to everyone this week as we returned to school, especially to Henry who joined RW for the first time on Thursday. Well done Scarlett ☺
1RB Our pupil of the week this week is Harry Dodds. Harry has done some outstanding work this week on multiplication. He has worked really hard and enjoyed making arrays out of counters and linking them to multiplication number sentences. Well done Harry! ☺	1A Ryan Imani for a positive attitude to school and learning. Ryan is always enthusiastic and loves to share his knowledge with the class. Well done on a good transition back into school life too, Ryan! Keep it up.
2J 'I have enjoyed some wonderful conversations on the phone with my class over the last few weeks. Keep up the great work at home! My pupil of the week this week is Lucas Stott. Lucas has been trying hard with his researching and writing about King Cobras and he has also been busy in the garden growing vegetables. Well done Lucas.'	2S 2S's pupil of the week is going to be split four ways, Thomas, Alfie V, Ewan and Oskar for being so creative with their learning and working together to complete their English research this week! Keep up the hard work boys, I'm very impressed!
3W Well done to all of 3W for more super work at home! Aaliyah Sharif is our pupil of the week for a super week. She has been in school with me and has worked extremely hard on every piece of work with a smile on her face. Well done, Aaliyah ☺	3R Christopher Beatham for working brilliantly at home and maintaining his positive attitude. He has been learning all about Ancient Greece, reading lots of Greek myths and producing some fantastic work. He has continued playing chess at home and has even taken part in online chess competitions as well as finally beating his Grandad! Keep up the super work Christopher ☺
4H My pupil of the week this week is Rital Hashem for her effort in all subjects this week. She has created some brilliant topic work and been trying incredibly hard in her maths and English as well as keeping busy making lots of delicious desserts at home. Well done Rital!	4L My pupil of the week in 4L is Luca J-R for his creative work in school this week with our new theme park project! He has created some great art work and produced a newspaper report based on the opening of his very own theme park! Well done Luca!
5 Sophie Mabb, for writing a stunning poem called 'Life Without Dreams' - it was full of vivid imagery and emotive language and shows her amazing progression this year. I was really impressed by how well-crafted it	5O Jack Nicholls for working incredibly hard at home, being resilient and creating some superb work around our topic of Anglo-Saxons and Vikings, including making a spectacular Viking long ship! ☺

was and its poignancy during lockdown. Take a look at it in the Year 5 section of the website. Well done, Superstar Sophie.
6M Evie Pullan for her excellent attitude all year. She puts 100% into everything and her maths skills this week have really impressed- well done Evie 😊	6C Evie McHugh - for her excellent attitude in class. She is focused, motivated and attentive to all she is undertaking in the classroom and her efforts have been noticed. Keep up the brilliant work Evie - well done.

Pup-date

Poppy Hellings was in school this week. She had a great time meeting her children in Reception in year 1 and 6 as well as her group of children in the key worker bubbles. She showed off her new haircut (well trim really). I know that some of you may be wondering why a dog can get a haircut and people can't – I am totally with you on that one! When she is not in school she enjoys going on long walks with Mr Hellings – this week she found out about keeping herself safe when she jumped into a puddle and got a lot more than she bargained for...

so much for a visit to the Poodle Parlour!!

Poppy also joined in with a Management Team meeting this week

It is exhausting being the Holy Trinity School Dog!

RE: Supporting Parents and Carers during Self-Isolation and School Closures

We understand that this is a challenging and worrying time not only for our students, but for many of our parents and carers. We have therefore, put together this list of local and national agencies or charities that will offer advice, signpost or support you first hand. We hope you find it useful. All schools in the ESNW cluster of schools are working together to ensure we can support all our families.

Below are a range of different support that all our families can access;

ESNW Cluster

The Cluster supports families with children who are aged 0-19 in the Leeds area. Their aim is to give children who are enrolled at schools in Leeds the support needed to become successful and reach their potential. Some of the services their core team provide are family support, parenting courses, and therapeutic support for young people, children and adults. They can be found at;
