

L.O. To understand and respect the differences and similarities between people.

What do you have in common with your brother or sister or mum or dad?

What is different?

What makes us different from each other?

Skin colour

Hair colour

Eye colour

Voice

Height

Body shape

Can you think of anything else?

What do you like to do?

Does it matter if you like different things to other people?

Is it ok to be different to your friends?

Complete the first part of your worksheet.

LO: To understand and respect the differences and similarities between people. Tuesday 12th January 2021

Complete the sentences below

My name is _____. I am a girl/ boy.

I like _____, _____ and _____.

My friend is called _____. They are a _____.

They like _____, _____ and _____.

We are similar because _____

We are different because _____

Everybody in the whole world is different.

We all like different things and that is ok.

We need to be respectful of our differences.

True or False?

Girls always have longer hair.

True or False?

Boys can usually run faster than girls.

Usain Bolt
9.58 for 100m
sprint.

Shelly-Ann
Fraser-Pryce
10.71 for 100m sprint.

True or False?

Only ladies can have babies.

Have a go at the second half of the worksheet.

Some of the statements are what we call common 'stereotypes'. Sadly, lots of people still believe some of the stereotypes, even when they are false.

Some of the statements are factually correct and are not based on opinion.

You can have a good discussion with your parents about these. Your mums and dads might not agree on all of them!!

Are the following statements true or false?

You will have to have a good chat to your mums and dads about these statements. The chat is more important than the answer really.

Boys are always stronger than girls. _____

Boys and girls can both have long hair. _____

Boys always have bigger muscles. _____

Only girls can wear skirts or dresses. _____

Only ladies can have babies. _____

Boys can usually run faster than girls. _____

Only girls can play with dolls. _____

Boys like blue and girls like pink. _____

Only men can be fire fighters. _____

Only ladies can be nurses _____

Women usually live longer than men. _____