

Monday 25th January

L.O. To infer how characters are feeling.

L.O. To infer how characters are feeling.

Today we are going to read The Tale of Benjamin Bunny.

Think carefully about each character's feeling as we read.

L.O. To make inferences.

Who were the characters in the story?

What did each
character do?

L.O. To make inferences.

Think about each character, can you pick out any feelings they might have had?

frightened

angry

confident

nervous

brave

scared

poorly

adventurous

protective

worried

excited

hopeless

L.O. To make inferences.

Write 3 different feelings that your character has during the story.

Choose one feeling and explain how you know that's how they felt.

What clues are in the story?

Peter Rabbit

- Poorly
- frightened
- happy

Peter was feeling _____ frightened because he was trapped under the basket and it was dark. Peter was crying.
