

Thursday 28th January

L.O. To write a set of instructions.

L.O. To write a set of instructions.

Using your planning from Tuesday, write the instructions in full sentences.

Remember each instruction needs a number at the start and you should start a new line for each new instruction.

L.O. To write a set of instructions.

If you can add in extra details to help the reader that would be great:

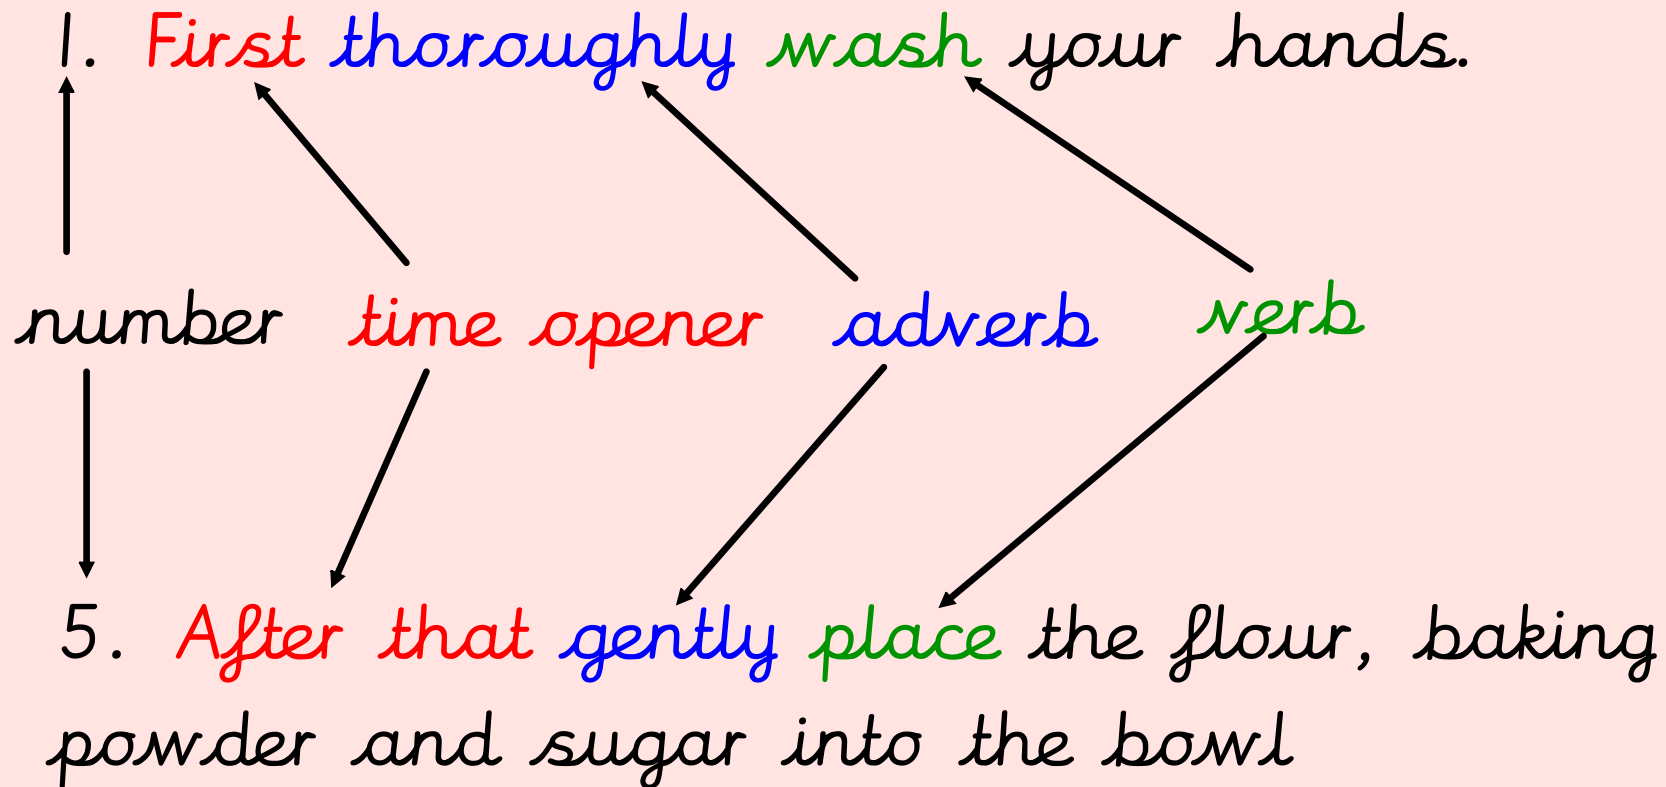

1. First grease the baking tin and line with baking paper.

1. First grease the baking tin with butter and line with baking paper.

3. Then stir the mixture.

3. Then carefully stir the mixture until all the ingredients are well combined.

L.O. To write a set of instructions.

L.O. To write a set of instructions.

Success criteria:

- ★ Numbered instructions
- ★ New line for each instruction.
- ★ Time openers
- ★ Bossy verbs
- ★ Adverbs
- ★ Capital letter and full stop for every instruction.

