L.O: To write with purpose

The policeman needs your help to catch the thieves! He needs you to create a wanted poster of the thieves so he can find them.

Can you help him?

I've heard Year 3 are very hard workers so I'm confident they can help me to catch the thieves!

What is a wanted poster?

A wanted poster is a poster distributed by a law enforcement agency (like the police) in order to find, question or arrest a person.

Some examples...

WANTED

$300.00 REWARD

On January 31, 1932, this woman was seen breaking into the home of The Three Bears. Please direct any information about her possible whereabouts to the Faraway Department of Justice.

Reward to be paid upon arrest and conviction.

Let's have a look at a
WAGOLL...

WANTED

£300 REWARD.

On the 5th March 2020, these two men were spotted breaking an entry and stealing valuable items from elderly peoples homes. If you have seen them or have any information, contact the police immediately.

REWARD TO BE PAID UPON ARREST

"THE THIEVES"

Description: We are looking for two men aged approximately 40-50 years of age. They are both approximately 6ft tall and of a slim build. They have long oval faces and pale complexions. One man has short ginger hair and often sports a light brown flat cap. The other suspect has short, dirty blonde hair and was last seen wearing a dark brown waistcoat. Both were last seen wearing scruffy brown trousers and cream colored stripy shirts. They are known to wear mackintoshes and carry suitcases in which they hide their stolen goods.

Last seen: On the 5th March near the chalk pit.

If you see them, DO NOT APPROACH, alert the police immediately.

Now have a go at writing your own wanted poster. You can use the template, design one on a computer, or draw and write one up yourself. It's up to you!
