

Wednesday 24th February

L.O. To know and use geographical vocabulary.

L.O. To know and use geographical vocabulary.

Today we are going to learn what some geographical words mean. We will be using them in our geography work this half term.

L.O. To know and use geographical vocabulary.

The Lake District is a rural in the county of Cumbria.

L.O. To know and use geographical vocabulary.

L.O. To know and use geographical vocabulary.

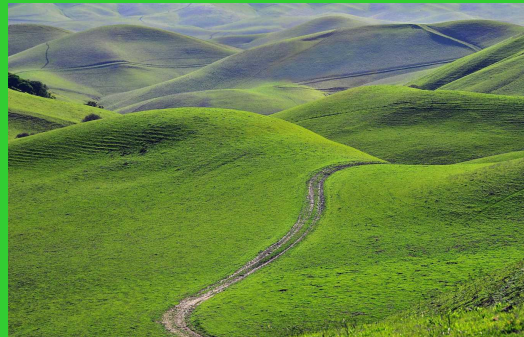

mountain

A large, steeply raised area of land, higher than a hill.

hill

A raised area of land, not as high as a mountain.

valley

A low area of land between two hills or mountains. Usually with a river or stream flowing through it.

L.O. To know and use geographical vocabulary.

lake

A area of water
with land around
it.

river

A large natural stream of flowing water.

forest

A large area covered mostly with trees.

L.O. To know and use geographical vocabulary.

city

A place where lots of people live and work. It is larger than a town and usually has a cathedral.

town

A place where people live and work. Smaller than a city but larger than a village.

village

A small number of houses often with a church and a small shop. Usually in a rural area.

L.O. To know and use geographical vocabulary.

hamlet

A very small group of houses, smaller than a village.

farm

A place where crops are grown or animals are reared.

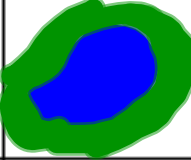

bridge

A structure carrying a road, path or railway over an obstacle e.g. a river.

L.O. To know and use geographical vocabulary.

L.O. To know and use geographical vocabulary 24.02.2021
 For each word draw a picture and match the correct definition.

mountain		A large, steeply raised area of land, higher than a hill
lake		An area of water with land around it
valley
hill
river
forest

A large natural stream of flowing water.
A large area covered mostly with trees.
A low area of land between two hills or mountains. Usually with a river or stream flowing through it.
A raised area of land, not as high as a mountain.