L.O: To write with purpose

Over the next two lessons we are going to be creating our own wanted posters.

What is a wanted poster? Have a think and see if you can describe it to someone.

Do NOT remain silent - prize money: £1500!!

Description: The sly, young fox is quick and cunning. He has shifty, scarlet eyes and sharp, gigantic teeth. Some may describe him as a menace, because he has a wicked, arrogant aura about him. He is astoundingly cautious and quick on his feet, but won't get far if we all look out for him.

Last Seen: Outside the police station! What an astonishing, mischievous fox he is!

The policeman needs your help in finding the thieves who stole all the treasure and silver!

He would like you to help him create a wanted poster to catch the criminals.

Before you create your wanted poster, you need to have a description of what the thieves look like. Usually, a witness will be able to give a detailed description of the suspect. This is somebody who has seen somebody commit the crime.

You will need to know:

- If the suspects are male or female
- The age of the suspects
- Height of the suspects
- Their build (slim, thin, athletic, muscular, stout, over weight)
- Their face shape / complexion (oval, round, square / rough, smooth, fair, wrinkled, stubble, clean shaven)
- What their hair is like (auburn, blonde, brunette, short, shoulder length, curly, straight, wavy, clean, greasy)
- What their nose is like (flat, squashed, pointed, broken, flat, wide, hooked, dainty, snub)
- How they dress (casual, scruffy, shabby, smart, tidy, messy)

Task: watch the video of the witness describing the thieves appearance. Jot down notes on their appearance on some paper. These notes will help you create your wanted poster in tomorrow's lesson.
