

SPaG Starter

These words all sound the same, but they are spelt differently, and have different meanings.

there

their they're

there

'there' refers to a place or position.

The children are playing over there.

There is an aeroplane in the sky.

their

'their' is a possessive adjective. This means it shows ownership or belonging.

Their lunch was very tasty.

The children are wearing their school uniform.

they're

'they're' is a contraction. This means it is a shorter way of saying 'they are'.

They're playing a game together.

They're running around the track.

SPaG Starter

their they're there

Choose the correct homophone for the following sentences:

Look over _____!

_____ going to a birthday party.

The girls collected _____ things.

_____ excited to watch the football game.

_____ is a man running in the park.

_____ cookies tasted delicious.

SPaG Starter

their they're there

Answers

Look over there!

They're going to a birthday party.

The girls collected their things.

They're excited to watch the football game.

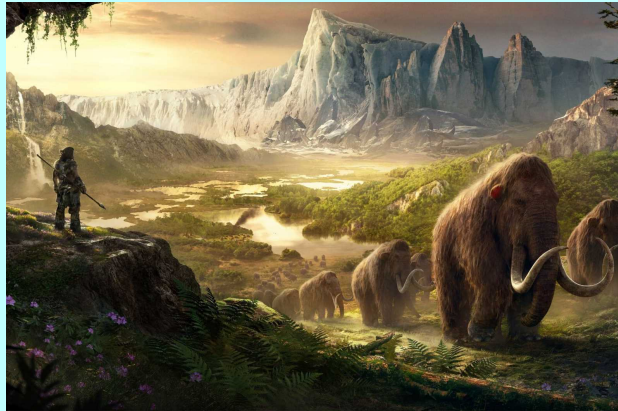

There is a man running in the park.

Their cookies tasted delicious.

Tuesday 2nd March

L.O: To use imaginative description

Today we are going to imagine that we have travelled back in time to the Stone Age, and you have seen these amazing places!

We want to tell people back in 2021 what the Stone Age was like, so we need to think of some words we can use to describe the settings.

For both pictures, think about:

- What nouns (people, places, things) can I see?
- What adjectives (describing words) could I use to describe the nouns?
- Can I use similes to describe what I can see?
- How could I describe how things are moving using verbs and adverbs?

Task: can you think of any descriptive words or phrases you could use to describe this setting?

Task: can you think of any descriptive words or phrases you could use to describe this setting?

Example:

giant, breathtaking mammoths

emerald, green grass

incredible view

snow-capped mountains

lush, green vegetation

cold, icy mountains

wild flowers

clear, blue river

Example:

cave paintings

people crouched inside

outlines of animals

dimly lit cave

incredible artwork

glowing orange walls

pictures drawn with charcoal

shadows flickering