LO: To create characters, settings and plots

Today you are going to plan the plot of your adventure story involving the main character or protagonist that you created yesterday. You will choose your idea for each stage of the storyline and over the next few lessons we will describe and add detail to our fiction story.

Plot

The plot of the story will be split into 6 sections.

Introduction to the character.

The main character finds an Egyptian artefact.

The artefact transports them back to Ancient Egypt.

The main character encounters a problem.

The main character finds a solution to the problem.

The main character travels back to 2021.

Main Task

Today you will write brief notes for each section of the story to form the plot. This will be your plan to help you write in more detail later this week.
