

LO: To reflect upon the impact of the American civil war 19.10.21

With your partner, order the cards in chronological order.

Civil War Before the Civil War began, President Lincoln was elected as President of the United States. 	Civil War President Lincoln was against slavery, he also believed in a strong federal government. 	Civil War After President Lincoln took office, a group of Southern states seceded from the Union to form their own country: The Confederate States. 	Civil War On April 12, 1861, Confederate troops attacked Union troops at Fort Sumter in South Carolina and began the Civil War.
Civil War Many Southern states supported slavery, as they used slaves to work on the large plantations common in the South. 	Civil War Many Southerners did not think the federal government should have a lot of power. Rather, they thought the local state governments should have more power. 	Civil War On January 1, 1863, President Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation which set slaves free. 	Civil War On April 9, 1865, after many battles were fought, General Robert E. Lee (of the Confederacy) surrendered to General Ulysses S. Grant (of the Union) and the war ended.
Civil War During the Reconstruction Period, the states that seceded from the Union were readmitted and rebuilt. 		Civil War Also, three amendments to the Constitution were passed during the Reconstruction: the thirteenth, fourteenth, and fifteenth amendments. These amendments abolished slavery, guaranteed equal protection under the law to all people, and ensuring the right to vote regardless of race or color.

RIC

Retrieve- Which groups of people are in the painting?

Interpret- What action is depicted? How do you know?

Choice- The title of the painting is called, "Peace in Union." Why do you think the painter chose this name?

Next Step: What do you think is the purpose of this painting?