

Escape Room– LO: To investigate properties and changes of materials

25.11.21

This half term, Year 5 have been learning about the properties and changes of materials. The children participated in an escape room activity where they had to conduct investigations and solve problems linked to their prior learning of this science unit. The children had to answer the clues correctly in order to identify the correct 10 digit escape code and escape the science lab!

