Dear Parent / Carers

Our Christian Value this term is Forgiveness

Our Ethos Statement is: Bear with each other and forgive whatever grievances you may have against one another. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. Colossians 3:13

Spring Term

It has been another busy week with wonderful things happening in school. On Monday our year 1 children excitedly went off on their trip to Nell Bank where they enjoyed a day outside exploring and playing.

On Tuesday our parents came to a stay and play in Reception Class and on Wednesday we had Romans visiting school for the year 3 Roman-day.

On Thursday our children enjoyed a trip to Tropical World where they explored all creature's exotic!

Our children in year 5 went to church on Wednesday and took part in the Mass at Holy Trinity – this is certainly a highlight with the parishioners at Holy Trinity ☺

Friday was Pyjama-day – with a bring a gift for Mothers and Others – an apt way to end a very busy week!

Parking

Please ensure that you do not park on the white zig-zags or yellow zig-zags outside of school. The zig-zags are there to protect our children in enabling them to have a safe entry to school. It is very important that we take care of each other – but most importantly that we take good care of our children at Holy Trinity!

Reading Books

Please can you check to see if you have any school reading scheme books at home, and return these to the office. Thank you.

Pupil of the Week

| RBRB's pupil of the week this week is Summaya Omraiz. I've been so impressed with Summaya's progress, particularly in her phonics. She's trying really hard in her lessons and is becoming more confident | RCThis week our pupil of the week is Michael Tindall. Michael has been working hard on his sentence writing and has really impressed me. Michael always listens attentively in class and joins in with class |

| when answering questions and responding to tasks. Summaya is cheerful and happy in school and follows our golden rules. Keep up the good work! 😊  | discussions. Michael is a kind friend, consistently chooses to do the right thing and is always polite. A pleasure to have in our class, well done Michael! 😊   |
| 1K1K's pupil of the week is Isaac. Isaac impressed us on our trip to Nell Bank with good listening and joining in all of the activities enthusiastically! He also impressed me with his fantastic map reading skills in our Geography lesson this week; identifying symbols and using grid references carefully to help him. Keep up the good work Isaac, well done! 😊  | 1RCOur pupil of the week is Harry. Harry represented our school brilliantly on our trip to Nell Bank. He listened carefully, and enjoyed learning about ways we could help keep our natural environment tidy. He has also impressed us with his fantastic estimating skills in maths, working independently and enthusiastically. Harry is a lovely, kind friend to everyone. Well done. 😊          |
| 2JOur pupil of the week this week is Robbie. Robbie always impresses us with his creativity and imagination, producing some beautiful art and descriptive writing work. Robbie's general knowledge is always great and he was able to use the word 'legato' in music to describe the feel of a piece. This week we've been especially pleased to see Robbie using better self-control in class and he's been concentrating hard in all lessons. Robbie always entertains me with his ideas and keeps the class smiling with his jokes. Keep it up Robbie. 😊 | 2SThis week we've chosen Leo Teasdale as our pupil of the week in 2S. He's had a fantastic term and has really impressed us with his questions and contributions to lessons, especially in science and geography. He's worked hard on his handwriting and has written some super setting descriptions in English. He's also a lovely friend to others. Keep up all your hard work Leo. Well done! 😊 |
| 3RThis week I have chosen Gracie Skaife as 3R's pupil of the week. Gracie is an absolute superstar in class; she is always incredibly kind and helpful. This week she has enjoyed weighing items as part of our learning on mass in maths. She has produced some amazing work in Science this week all about the life cycle of a flowering plant which has been wonderful to see. She has also impressed with her fantastic singing with Mrs Swann! Well done Gracie - keep it up 😊   | 3WThis week in 3W we have chosen Grace as our pupil of the week. Grace is a lovely member of the class and she always displays an excellent attitude to her learning. She has really impressed both myself and Ms Mbaikaize with her work in maths this week as she keeps on trying her best, even when the work gets tricky. Well done Grace, keep up the good work. 😊                             |
| 4WWell done to all of 4W for another busy week which included our fab Roman Day on Wednesday. This week, our Pupil of the Week is Robyn Heels. Over the last few weeks I have been blown away with  | 4SThis week our pupil of the week in 4S is Noah! Noah had an amazing Roman experience day, and was able to share so much of his own knowledge with the Roman expert. He asked so many   |

| Robyn's attitude to her learning, she is working so incredibly hard, persevering if she is finding something tricky and completing some excellent work. She has really impressed me with her understanding of fractions as well as her growing confidence. Well done, Robyn. 😊  | interesting and critical questions, helping himself and the rest of the class learn more. He was very engaged in all of the activities and had a really amazing day! We have also been extremely impressed with his Roman diary entry which was packed with adventure, detail, and excitement. Well done Noah, keep up the amazing work! 😊   |
| 5LMy 5L Pupil of the Week is Rory Briscoe-Wilkinson for a fantastic attitude on our residential last week! Rory embraced all challenges he faced - including a Leap of Faith - and we all couldn't be prouder of how far he has come! Rory has brought this fantastic attitude back to class and has tried really hard with all our tricky challenges! Rory, you are a pleasure to teach in 5L! 😊  | 5KI have chosen Abi Fearn for her excellent newspaper article about the moon landing. She has included all of the language features including varied sentence types and quotations, and has produced a really fantastic and engaging read! Abi has an excellent attitude to learning and always presents her work neatly. Well done Abi! 😊                                    |
| 6CGeorge Cook for his great efforts throughout this week in Year 6. George has worked hard in all lessons, including explaining and interpreting graphs in maths. He has also worked particularly hard in his English lessons, where we have been starting to write quest stories. Combined with this, George is also always helping out the school with the different jobs he does with care and thought. Well done George, keep up the great work. 😊 | 6EEsme Dargan is our pupil of the week this week. Esme has given superb effort in all lessons. She has shown a growth mindset by asking the right questions about how to improve what she is doing then gone back to make those changes, especially in English where she has continued her quest story to show how Year 6 writing needs to be. Well done, Esme! Keep it up! 😊 |
