'The Best for Every Child - a Unique Child of God'
ISSUE No 36

27th June, 2025

Dear Parent / Carers

Our Christian Value this term is Courage

Our Ethos Statement is: 'Do no be terrified; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go' Joshua 1:9

Summer Term

This week we enjoyed our year 6 children leading on their Enterprise Projects – entertaining the rest of our children in school and making money for their end of year treat as well as paying forward for next year's year 6 children. There was certainly lots going on over the day on Thursday – and that was just the weather!

Thank you for supporting our children in achieving their ambitions – who knows maybe we have an entrepreneur in the making!

The disco on Friday was a great success – thank you to the PTA and helpers for making it an energetic but also a relaxed and enjoyable evening.

Classes for next year

Pupil of the Week

| RB Our pupil of the week in RB class is Hannah Brookes. She's worked incredibly hard across the curriculum and has made some fantastic progress in her reading, writing and maths. Hannah is a wonderful friend, always kind and caring towards others and is a great role model. Well done Hannah 😊 | RC Our pupil of the week is Santiago Harris. Every week is a good week for Santi! He always tries his best and has made great progress in Reception. Santi is always happy to help and is a great role model in class. He is kind to other children and always has a smile for everyone! Well done Santi! 😊 |
| 1K 1K's pupil of the week is Iris. Iris has really impressed me with her writing this week. We have been writing a diary about our book Flotsam. Iris used correct punctuation, lots of adjectives and shown lovely handwriting, amazing work! Iris has also shown lots of resilience during our Assessment week and worked so hard. Well done Iris, keep up the fantastic work 😊 | 1RC Our pupil of the week is Jack Marshall. Jack has made incredible progress across all subjects this year. We are particularly impressed with Jack's confidence and fluency in his reading. Jack always produces beautifully presented work and is keen to have a go at every activity. Jack is always polite and helpful in the classroom, and a kind friend to everyone. Well done Jack! 😊 |
| 2J Our pupil of the week this week in 2J is Alice. Alice has been a fantastic 'always' child in our class this year and a pleasure to teach. She works incredibly hard in every lesson and is always highly conscientious about her presentation in her books. She is polite and well-mannered and is a lovely friend to others around the classroom. This week she did some lovely dancing in our Indian Dancing lesson and she has also planned a fabulous adventure story which I can't wait to read. Well done Alice! 😊 | 2S This week we have chosen Sienna Forrest as our pupil of the week. Sienna is a delight to teach; she works incredibly hard on every task and always does it with a smile on her face. This year we've been so impressed by her growth in confidence and we love hearing all her contributions in class. We have absolutely loved having Sienna in class with us this year and we're really proud of everything she's achieved! Well done Sienna 😊 |
| 3R This week we have chosen Anne as 3R's pupil of the week. Anne always works hard and shows a brilliant attitude to learning. She has wowed us this week with her amazing progress in maths and has impressed with her reasoning and problem-solving skills. She has also done some super work in geography - she has produced a fantastic sketch map from our local area walk and identified lots of human and physical features. Well done Anne! 😊 | 3W This week in 3W our pupil of the week is Cooper. I have been really impressed with how Cooper's confidence continues to develop and that he is wanting to share lots of ideas, across a range of subjects. Additionally, Cooper has made excellent progress with his reading comprehension and we have been impressed with his scores in our recent test. Well done Cooper, keep up the hard work. 😊 |

| 4W Well done to Alice Kitson who is 4W's Pupil of the Week. Alice is such a fantastic member of the class and has impressed me throughout the year with her hard work and attitude. Alice works incredibly diligently on every piece of work, ensuring it is completed to the highest standard, she is engaged in all of our lessons providing excellent ideas and opinions. Not only that, her behaviour is exemplary too. Well done for a fab year, Alice! 😊 | 4S This week in 4S our Pupil of the Week is Tabitha. Tabitha has been writing a super story all about an adventure into Ancient Egypt which has kept me captivated at every twist and turn. Her vocabulary choices have been amazing and she has been blowing me away with her ideas and creativity. I cannot wait to carry on reading her story to see what happens next! Well done Tabitha, keep up the amazing work! 😊 |
| 5L My 5L Pupil of the Week is Junxi Zhao for a brilliant week of learning! Junxi has really impressed me with his Viking Saga story - he has included lots of adjectives to help describe his characters! Junxi has also tried very hard with our maths unit, using analogue clocks to tell the time to the exact minute. Junxi has absolutely loved art this week and produced a brilliant design for his clay work! Well done, Junxi! 😊 | 5K I have chosen Haashir as pupil of the week this week. I could choose him every single week! Haashir has a wonderful attitude towards learning, he has really grown in confidence across all subjects and is always enthusiastic, contributing in class discussion. Haashir has lots of creative ideas and has written a fantastic Viking saga this week which includes similes and metaphors, personification and a variety of different sentence types. Well done Haashir! 😊 |
| 6C Maya Zelikson for her incredible hard work throughout the year. She has provided constant help and support around school and in particular, confidently organising morning worships and computer set-up. In the final weeks of Y6, she has used her impressive teamwork skills to prepare for Enterprise Day and she has shown brilliant acting ability during our show rehearsals. Well done Maya - keep up the impressive efforts! 😊 | 6E The whole of Year 6 are our pupils of the week for their work during Enterprise Day. Enterprise Day was a thoroughly successful occasion with every single team member working their socks off yesterday and with the preparation in the days and weeks before then. The children were working solidly for 5 hours plus in a range of weather conditions and showed a great attitude throughout. Well done, Year 6! 😊 |
